- Relevant government regulators or authority or law enforcement agency to comply with any laws or rules and regulations imposed by any governmental authority; and
- Any other party to whom you authorise us to disclose your personal data.

b. In situations in which a partner or third party under a contract with us collects Personal Data about you, we will require the third party to exercise reasonable care in protecting your Personal Data so that it is in compliance with the Act.

5. Access to and Correction of Personal Data

Subject to certain exceptions in the Act, you may request to access or correct your information. You may do so by submitting your request to us via email. Please refer to our contact details at paragraph 11 of this Privacy Policy.

6. Retention of Personal Data

PRIVACY POLICY FOR T.H.E Dance Company Ltd

We will retain your Personal Data collected for as long as it is necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it is collected, the objectives of T.H.E, and/or as may be required by applicable law. When destroying Personal Data, we will take commercially reasonable and technically feasible measures to make the data irrecoverable or irreproducible, as may be required by applicable law.

7. Accuracy of Personal Data

We will take reasonable efforts to ensure that your Personal Data is accurate and complete, if your Personal Data is likely to be used by us to make a decision that affects you, or disclosed to another organisation. However, this means that you should ensure that all Personal Data submitted to us is complete, accurate, true and correct. You must also update us of any changes in your Personal Data that you had initially provided us with. We will not be responsible for relying on inaccurate or incomplete personal data arising from your not updating us of any changes in your Personal Data that you had initially provided us with.

8. Security

We will take reasonable security measures to protect your Personal Data in our possession or under our control in order to prevent unauthorised access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification or disposal. However, we cannot assume responsibility for any unauthorised use of your Personal Data by third parties which are wholly attributable to factors beyond our control.

9. Opt-Out

- a. You may inform us via email if you do not wish to be contacted via voice call, text message, post and/or electronic mail regarding our goods and services, activities or events. Please refer to our contact details at paragraph 11 of this Privacy Policy.
- b. If you do not want your Personal Data to be shared with our partners, you may opt-out of such information sharing by contacting us via email. Please refer to our contact details at paragraph 11 of this Privacy Policy.
- c. Please note that if you withdraw your consent for a limited purpose, we may still contact you or use your information for other purposes for which you have not withdrawn your consent and such personal data may still be shared, as permitted under the Act and other applicable law.
